
Job description

Date: 13 January 2025

Department: City and Neighbourhood Services

Post number: FPHPO004

Section: City Services

Job title: Environmental Health Officer

Grade: Grade 8

Main purpose of job

Responsible through a Senior Environmental Health Officer (EHO) to a relevant manager for the improvement of the health and quality of life of people in Belfast through the efficient and effective delivery of specific work activities allocated to the postholder.

Make an effective contribution to the development and achievement of Departmental, service and unit business plans and objectives.

Ensure that all duties and tasks assigned to the postholder are performed in accordance with specified time and quality targets.

Summary of responsibilities and personal duties

1. Carry out the full range of enforcement, investigative, educational and advisory duties in implementing and enforcing the provisions of all Environmental Health and allied legislation, or dealing with complaints, associated with the responsibilities of any area of work to which the postholder is assigned, in accordance with the relevant work programmes and as required by the relevant manager.
2. Carry out inspections and investigations, assessing physical, environmental and health conditions within premises, buildings, land, vehicles, vessels and aircraft as required, complete risk assessments and risk ratings for premises, products and processes and work activities to determine the level of compliance with relevant technical standards and statutory provisions, and determine the appropriate actions.
3. Review and critically assess complex technical reports, plans, drawings and correspondence, liaising with internal and external technical experts, identifying appropriate recommendations and drafting reports and responses on behalf of the council as required.
4. Conduct sampling and complaint investigations as required, undertaking all necessary administration and use of IT systems for the duties of the post.
5. Make decisions as authorised officers of the council, determining the most appropriate course of legal or non-statutory action, in line with the Council's Regulation and Enforcement Policy, and to make recommendations as necessary. Conduct interviews under PACE Caution, prepare and serve legal notices, prepare prosecution cases and attend court and other hearings/tribunals/public enquiries/appeals as required to present evidence and support the council's legal representatives.
6. Identify the educational needs of the community relevant to Environmental Health services, and devise, organise and participate in health education and promotion activities, and devise media releases when appropriate.
7. Liaise and work in partnership with other organisations (public, private, voluntary and community), providing technical Environmental Health expertise as required, to enhance the achievement of service and unit objectives.
8. Liaise with elected representatives and respond to Member enquiries and requests relating to the postholders area of work as required.
9. Deal with and respond to Freedom of Information requests, Environmental Information Requests, and Data Subject Access Requests as required in accordance with Council Policy and relevant legislation.
10. Carry out and lead on project work as directed by the Senior EHO or other relevant manager.
11. Contribute to the achievement of council and departmental objectives and participate in departmental and council-wide project teams as directed by the Senior EHO or other relevant Manager
12. Be responsible for organising personal daily work demands to ensure that all relevant agreed targets are achieved to ensure that a quality, customer focused environmental health service is delivered.

13. Provide such reports, records and statistical information as required.
 14. Actively participate in and progress through a structured development programme to build professional experience and competence.
 15. Maintain the level of competence, knowledge and skills required for authorisation under legislation relevant to the post. to keep informed of all new and emerging developments within the area of work to which the postholder is currently assigned through a process of continuing professional development.
 16. Provide technical guidance, support and training to other team members and colleagues across the service within any lead/specialist fields of Environmental Health expertise held by the postholder, and to formulate, develop and review procedures and guidance notes for use by other staff and for the effective delivery of services.
 17. Proactively make suggestions for the improvement of work practices and services provided.
 18. Participate as required in the training of students and other persons assigned to the unit for training purposes or work experience.
 19. Occasionally work outside normal office hours and to provide occasional cover for out of hours services relevant to the post and as directed by the unit manager.
 20. Participate in the Departments emergency response phone rota as required.
 21. Motivate, mentor and train any staff that may be temporarily assigned to the post holder to ensure effective service delivery and to be responsible for reviewing and implementing a proper staff training and development programme.
 22. Participate in all induction and in-service training provided by Belfast City Council and in the induction and support of all newly appointed staff and in other human resource management policies and procedures, as appropriate, including, absence management, disciplinary and grievance procedure.
 23. Participate as directed in the council's recruitment and selection procedures.
 24. Act in accordance with the council and departmental policies and procedures including customer care, equal opportunities, health and safety, safeguarding and any pertinent legislation.
 25. Undertake the duties in such a way as to enhance and protect the reputation and public profile of the city council.
 26. Undertake such other relevant duties as may from time to time be required.

This job description has been written at a time of significant organisational change and it will be subject to review and amendment as the demands of the role and the organisation evolve. Therefore, the post-holder will be required to be flexible, adaptable and aware that they may be asked to perform tasks, duties and responsibilities which are not specifically detailed in the job description, but which are commensurate with the role.

Employee specification

Date: 31 January 2025

Department: City and Neighbourhood Services

Post number: FPHPO004

Section: City Services

Job title: Environmental Health Officer

Grade: Grade 8

Essential criteria

Qualifications and driving licence

Applicants must, as at the closing date for receipt of application forms:

- a) have a full, current driving licence which enables them to drive in Northern Ireland and have their own transport available at all times for official council business or have access to a form of transport which enables them to meet the requirements of the post in full.¹
- b) hold a Bachelor of Science or Master of Science degree in Environmental Health which is approved by the Chartered Institute of Environmental Health, or a qualification acceptable to the Environmental Health Registration Board, that is, a Diploma in Environmental Health awarded by the Chartered Institute of Environmental Health (CIEH), or a historical equivalent.
- c) hold either a Certificate of Registration of the Environmental Health Officers' Registration Board (EHORB) or be a Registered Environmental Health Practitioner (EHP) with the Chartered Institute of Environmental Health – if not already registered with EHORB or CIEH as an EHP, the applicant must complete the registration process and any CIEH assessments required within 18 months of appointment to the post.
- d) be qualified as Official Fishery Inspectors (or must be prepared to undertake practical training and successfully complete the Food Standards Agency online course within three months of appointment).

¹ Please be advised that this alternative is a 'reasonable adjustment' specifically for applicants with disabilities who, as a result of their disability, are unable to hold a full, current driving licence. However please also be advised that, given the business need for the post-holder to carry out specified enforcement, investigative, educational and advisory duties related to the work of the Environmental Health Service with organisations and customers across the city, as well as the need to provide occasional cover for out of hours services, the 'reasonableness' of this adjustment will be thoroughly considered prior to any appointment being made.

Special skills and attributes

Applicants must be able to demonstrate, by providing personal and specific examples, evidence of the following special skills and attributes which may be tested at interview:

Communication skills: a good standard of literacy and written communication skills with the ability to produce reports and the ability to communicate effectively, particularly with members of the public and with business owners in a way which reflects their needs.

Technical knowledge: a good understanding of environmental health issues.

Work planning skills: the ability to manage and prioritise a workload, to undertake required tasks independently and work to the specific technical criteria and targets.

Team working skills: the ability to work effectively as part of a team.

Decision making skills: an incisive and practical approach to decision making with the ability to know when to make decisions on their own and when to seek assistance from the senior or principal officer.

Customer care skills: an understanding of customer relations issues and customer care procedures.

Information technology skills: the ability to use standard office programmes and packages effectively, as well as the appropriate specialised programmes.

Shortlisting criteria

In addition to the above qualifications and driving licence, Belfast City Council reserves the right to short-list only those applicants who, as at the closing date for receipt of application forms:

- in the first instance, already hold a Certificate of Registration awarded by the Environmental Health officers Registration Board or hold Registration with the Chartered Institute of Environmental Health as a Registered Environmental Health Practitioner;
- in the second instance, can demonstrate on the application form, by providing personal and specific examples, at least one year's relevant experience of working as an Environmental Health Officer or in a similar Environmental Health role; and
- in the third instance, can demonstrate on the application form, by providing personal and specific examples, at least two years' relevant experience of working as an Environmental Health Officer or in a similar Environmental Health role.

Job applicant privacy notice

Belfast City Council is the Data Controller under the UK General Data Protection Regulation (UK GDPR) for the personal data it processes relating to job applicants. Processing data from job applicants allows the council to manage the recruitment process, assess and confirm an applicant's suitability for employment and decide to whom to offer a job. It may also need to process data from job applicants to respond to and defend against legal claims.

If you apply for this job, you will be consensually providing your personal data to the council whose lawful basis for processing it is for the performance of a task carried out in the public interest or in the exercise of official authority.

The council will collect a range of information about you, including:

- your name, address and contact details, including email address and telephone number;
- details of your qualifications, skills, experience and employment history;
- information about your current level of remuneration, which may include benefit entitlements;
- whether or not you have a disability, or if your first language is not English, so that it can make reasonable adjustments, as required, during the recruitment process; and
- information about your entitlement or eligibility to work in the UK.

The council will collect this information in a variety of ways for example, by application forms, through forms of assessment, from interview or from your identity documents. It may also collect personal data about you from third parties, such as references, but it will only seek this data if you have been recommended for appointment to the post and it will inform you that it is doing this.

Your personal data will be shared internally within the council with staff who are involved in the recruitment process and, where necessary, between internal departments for the purpose of ensuring a fair, systematic and objective recruitment and selection process is in place. It may also be shared with external consultants appointed by the council for the purposes of candidate attraction and selection, or for the purpose of language interpretation where appropriate.

Your personal data will not be shared or disclosed to any other organisation without your consent unless the law permits or places an obligation on the council to do so. Your data will be stored in a range of different places including the recruitment file, the HR information management system and other IT systems such as email. It will be held and stored by the council in a safe and secure manner in compliance with data protection legislation and in line with the council's Records Retention and Disposal Schedule.

The council is also required to collect more sensitive personal data (known as special category personal data) in order to monitor applications for equal opportunities purposes. The equality monitoring information is removed from your application pack before your job application is considered, and is retained in compliance with the council's Records Retention and Disposal Schedule. Your sensitive personal data will not be shared without your consent unless the law permits or places an obligation on the council to do so.

As a data subject, you have a number of rights. These include your right to:

- access and obtain a copy of your personal data on request;

- require the council to change incorrect or incomplete personal job applicant data; and
- require the council to delete or restrict processing your data.

If you have any queries regarding the processing of your personal data, please contact our Job Line on 028 9027 0640. If you wish to contact the council's Data Protection Officer, please write to Belfast City Council, City Hall Belfast, BT1 5GS or send an email to dataprotection@belfastcity.gov.uk

Please see further details of the terms and conditions relating to this post set out below:

Appointment

The appointment will be made by the selection panel but will be subject to ratification by the director of the relevant department.

There are currently two full-time, fixed term contract posts until 31 March 2026, subject to review, which may be extended subject to funding arrangements.

There may be a reserve list of applicants drawn up for this post which would last for a maximum of 12 months. Should a similar post become vacant within this time, it may be offered to those on the reserve list, in order of merit, without further interview. These posts may be either full-time, part-time or job share on a fixed term or temporary basis.

If you are offered and you accept a temporary position e.g. a temporary part-time position for 3 months, and another temporary part-time position arises from the same recruitment campaign e.g. for 1 year, regardless of whether or not you are still working in your temporary part-time position, you will not be offered any further temporary part-time position.

However, in certain circumstances, when all relevant applicants on the reserve list for temporary vacancies, full-time or part-time, have been offered opportunities for which they expressed a preference on their application form, and if the timing of the reserve list is still valid and there are still temporary vacancies to fill before the reserve list expires, the council reserves the right to 'revisit' the reserve list in strict order of merit. This is the only time when an individual who has been appointed to a temporary position e.g. a temporary part-time position can be offered another temporary part-time position.

If a similar post does become vacant within this time, it will be offered to candidates on the reserve list in the following way:

1. Candidates will be initially contacted by telephone and must respond within three working days to accept or decline the post.
2. Candidates who cannot be contacted by telephone will be contacted by letter and must respond by telephone or by return of acceptance form within five working days of the date of the letter.

If candidates do not respond within the above time frames, the post will be offered, in order of merit, to the next person on the reserve list. The names of those candidates who have not responded within the above timeframes will be retained on the reserve list, in order of merit, to be considered for future vacant posts.

However, if candidates have been contacted on three separate occasions, and they have not responded within the above timeframes on these three occasions, the council will assume that they are no longer interested in the post and their names will be removed from the reserve list.

Should your contact telephone numbers or your address change since you submitted your application form, it is your responsibility to notify the HR Employee Resourcing Unit by emailing jobs@belfastcity.gov.uk with your new contact details.

If applicable, an existing permanent employee of Belfast City Council will, if successful, retain the right to return to their substantive post at the conclusion of the fixed term contract. An existing temporary or fixed term contract employee will, if successful, be appointed on the basis of a further temporary or fixed term contract with no automatic right to revert back to their temporary or fixed term contract post. Similarly, an existing agency assignee will, if successful, be appointed on the basis of a fixed term contract but with no automatic right to revert back to their original agency assignment. Temporary and fixed term contract employees and agency assignees should give consideration to this prior to applying or accepting this post.

Job details

Job description: please refer to the job description for details of the duties of the post.

Employee specification: please refer to the attached employee specification for details of any qualifications, licences, memberships of professional bodies, experience etc. which are required for the post. Should an applicant be recommended for appointment to this post, they will be required to produce official original proof of any qualifications, licences, memberships, etc. they relied upon to support their application. Please also be advised that an applicant must provide evidence to demonstrate that they were in possession of such qualifications, licences, memberships, etc. at the closing date for applications.

The employee specification for this post requires candidates to have a full, current driving licence which enables them to drive in Northern Ireland and have their own transport available at all times for official council business, or, *access to a form of transport which enables them to meet the requirements of the post in full. Please be advised that this alternative is a 'reasonable adjustment' specifically for applicants with disabilities who, as a result of their disability, are unable to hold a full, current driving licence. However please also be advised that, given the business need for the post-holder to carry out specified enforcement, investigative, educational and advisory duties related to the work of the Environmental Health Service at the Belfast Port and/or with other organisations and customers across the city, as well as the need to provide occasional cover for out of hours services, the 'reasonableness' of this adjustment will be thoroughly considered prior to any appointment being made.

Please note, it will be a condition of appointment that if a successful candidate, is not qualified as an Official Fishery Inspector, as at the closing date for application forms, they must undertake practical training and successfully complete the Food Standards Agency online course within three months of appointment.

Remuneration

The salary will be determined by the council in line with that determined by the National Joint Council for Local Government Services, currently Grade 8, SCP 34 to 37, £43,693 - £46,731 per annum plus 20% shift allowance and weekend enhancement, where appropriate (in normal circumstances, the starting salary is the minimum point), paid monthly by direct payment by the Bankers Automated Clearing System (BACS) to a bank or building society account of your choice.

Location

The person appointed will be based initially at Port Health, Corry Place, Belfast and at the Border Inspection Post located within Belfast Port but will also be required to work in and, or visit other locations.

Pre-employment checks

Prior to taking up duty the person recommended for appointment must:

- (a) Enter into an agreement which sets out the main terms and conditions of employment.
- (b) Provide evidence of the right to work and reside in the UK via either:
 - a digital identity check via the council's Identity Service Provider (IDSP). To use this method, you will need to hold a current UK or Irish biometric passport or passport card.
 - or
 - an original full UK birth certificate and original proof of national insurance number (for example, via national insurance card, P45 or payslip etc). No temporary national insurance numbers can be accepted.

Individuals who do are unable to provide evidence of their right to work and reside in the UK via either of the methods above, must inform the council and a list of any official alternative documentation will be made available to them.

- (c) Produce official evidence of their qualifications, driving licence (both parts) and membership of a professional body, as required. Please be advised that candidates must provide evidence to demonstrate that they were in possession of them at the closing date for applications.

- (d) Provide details of the bank or building society account to which their salary or wage will be lodged.
- (e) Provide two satisfactory work references. If suitably satisfactory references are not received, they will not be offered the appointment.
- (f) Pass satisfactorily a medical assessment by the council's Occupational Health Service provider.
- (g) Complete a disclosure of family relationships form.
- (i) Complete a disclosure of criminal convictions form, under the Rehabilitation of Offenders (NI) Order 1978. All applicants who are recommended for appointment to a post within Belfast City Council must provide details in respect of any criminal convictions which are not regarded as 'spent' convictions. Any disclosed convictions will be taken into account only when the conviction is considered relevant to the post and will be seen in the context of the job, the nature of the offence and the responsibility for the care of existing client/customer and employees.

If the person appointed acquires a conviction throughout the course of their employment with Belfast City Council, they must bring this to the attention of their line manager/departmental HR representative. Failure to comply with this request can result in a breach of the terms and conditions of employment and may result in sanction or dismissal. Any information will be dealt with confidentially and help is available.

Please note that if an applicant is recommended for appointment they must complete the pre-employment checks, outlined above, within 10 working days or consideration will be given to withdrawing the recommendation for appointment and no formal offer of appointment will be made.

Council policies

The person appointed will be required to comply with all current and future council policies, procedures, guidelines, agreed working practices and any relevant collective agreements incorporated into the contract of employment.

Conditions

The general conditions of service as prescribed from time to time by the National Joint Council for Local Government Services and by the council for its officers shall apply to the appointment and the Single Status Implementation Agreement dated 2007 as renegotiated from time to time is hereby incorporated into the contract of employment.

A copy of the council's Disciplinary Procedure and Grievance Procedure will be issued to all new employees at the council's Induction Course.

Please note if you are an applicant with previous local authority service in England, Scotland, Wales etc., you are advised to clarify your particular situation with regard to the continuity of this service, prior to accepting an offer of appointment from Belfast City Council.

Service and hours of duty

The hours of duty are an average of 37 per week, working two weeks on day shift (am to pm) and two weeks on night shift (pm to am) (not necessarily consecutively) in various Teams per the shift rotas below. The person appointed will be informed as to which team they have been assigned to. However, when advised, the person appointed will be required, for operational reasons, to work outside of these hours including on extra statutory, bank and/or public holidays.

Please note, shift rotas are subject to change and the successful applicants will be expected to work any new shift rota adopted by the council. Changes to the shift rota may include a variation to the start and finish times to ensure alignment with DAERA’s (Department of Agriculture, Environment and Rural Affairs) shift patterns when they are agreed. These changes, if they occur, may have the potential to alter the 20% shift allowance and weekend enhancement payments as stated above under Remuneration. Any changes to working arrangements will be communicated to the person appointed as soon as they become available.

Breaks must be taken according to operational requirements.

In accordance with the National Joint Council for Local Government Services National Agreement on Pay and Conditions of Service variations to the established working week or patterns of work will be reasonable and subject to adequate notice.

Other fixed term contract and temporary posts may arise and be filled from a reserve list, these vacancies may comprise of alternative hours of duty and working patterns to those stated above including part-time or job share hours.

Annual leave

Annual leave and extra statutory, bank or public holiday entitlement is calculated in hours/minutes.

A person appointed on the standard full-time hours of 37 per week will be entitled to 177.6 hours (24 days) annual leave, plus 88.8 hours (12 days) bank or other holidays.

Annual leave entitlement will be increased by 37 hours (5 days) in the case of officers who have not less than 5 years’ continuous service and by a further 22.2 hours (3 days) in the case of officers who have not less than 10 years’ continuous service.

Figures in brackets represent the number of days based upon a standard day of 7.4 hrs.

For individuals who do not work the standard full-time hours, annual leave and extra statutory, bank or public holiday entitlement will be calculated on a pro rata basis to their contracted hours, based on the standard full-time hours of 37 per week and a standard day of 7.4 hours (i.e. 7 hrs 24 minutes).

Employees are entitled to a holiday with a normal day’s pay for each of the statutory, general and public holidays as they occur. Where the balance of the employee’s public / bank and statutory holiday entitlement has been exhausted, additional leave taken for public / bank and statutory holidays will be deducted from the employee’s annual leave entitlement.

All employees required to work on extra statutory, bank or public holidays will be remunerated in accordance with Part 3, paragraph 2 of the National Joint Council for Local Government Services National Agreement on Pay and Conditions of Service.

The leave year commences on 1 April. If an employee starts part way through the annual leave year, the employee will receive annual leave entitlement on a pro rata basis, calculated on the number of days remaining in the current leave year from the first day of employment.

Sick leave

This scheme is intended to supplement Statutory Sick Pay and Incapacity Benefit so as to maintain normal pay during defined periods of absence on account of sickness, disease, accident or assault. Absence in respect of normal sickness is entirely separate from absence through industrial disease, accident or assault arising out of or in the course of employment with a local authority. Periods of absence in respect of one shall not be set off against the other for the purpose of calculating entitlements under the scheme. Employees are entitled to receive sick pay for the following periods:

During first year of service	one month's full pay and (after completing four months service) two months half pay
During second year of service	two months' full pay, and two months' half pay
During third year of service	four months' full pay, and four months' half pay
During fourth and fifth years of service	five months' full pay, and five months' half pay
After five years' service	six months' full pay, and six months' half pay

Superannuation

The person appointed will automatically become a member of the Local Government Pension Scheme (Northern Ireland) LGPS (NI) in line with scheme regulations. They may opt out of the scheme. However, the council is required to comply with automatic enrolment provisions and will automatically enrol the person appointed at certain times. Appointees (including for casual posts), who do not meet the criteria for immediate automatic enrolment, can opt to join the scheme by contacting Payroll in writing (email payroll@belfastcity.gov.uk). The LGPS (NI) is administered by Northern Ireland Local Government Officers' Superannuation Committee (NILGOSC) (www.nilgosc.org.uk).

Car user

This job will require the postholder to carry out council duties in all areas and locations across the city and beyond. To do this, the postholder must have a full, current driving licence and have their own transport available for official council business. For this, the postholder will be reimbursed at the appropriate mileage rate, in accordance with the council's Car User Policy if they use their own car.

Canvassing

Canvassing in any form, oral or written, direct or indirect, will disqualify an applicant for appointment. Candidates can, however, contact the relevant department for further information about the post. The person from the relevant department who provides further information should not be a member of the selection panel.

Notice

The minimum period of notice to be given by an employee shall normally be the ordinary period from one payment of salary or wages to the next.

Belfast City Council may terminate an employee's employment with the council by giving the following period of notice:

Continuous service	Period of notice
One month or more but less than two years	Not less than one week
Two years or more but less than twelve years	Not less than one week for each year of continuous service
12 years or more	Not less than 12 weeks

If applicable, it is usual to give one week's notice to terminate this fixed term contract or temporary arrangement. If applicable, statutory notice periods which relate to a substantive post with the council remain unchanged.

Probationary period

The person appointed may be required to complete a six-month probationary period, if this is a requirement of the relevant department, and during this time one week's notice will be given by the council to terminate employment.

Interview expenses

Reimbursement of interview expenses is not available.

Receipt of applications

Completed applications must be received by email to jobs@belfastcity.gov.uk by 4pm on Monday, 24 February 2025

Please note that it is the candidate's responsibility to ensure that their application form is submitted and received in the Human Resources Section by this closing date and time. Application forms must be submitted as an email attachment. Due to the council's Computer Use Policy and security protocols, storage services such as SkyDrive are not accessible. Applications submitted as a link to a storage service will not be accepted. No late application forms will be considered. No application forms, or supporting information in respect of an already submitted application form, will be considered after this date and time. Applications will not be accepted by fax.

We are unable to issue or receive any hard copy application forms, either by post or hand-delivered.

Short-listing and interview date

It is envisaged that short-listing for this post will take place on Monday, 3 March 2025. Whilst no specific testing or assessment arrangements are anticipated for this post, depending on the volume of applicants, the council reserves the right to include these mechanisms as part of the selection process. It is also envisaged that interviews will be held via MS Teams on Wednesday, 12 and or Friday, 14 March 2025.

The council will make all reasonable efforts to accommodate applicants who are unavailable on the specified interview date but it is under no obligation to do so.

Belfast City Council is an equal opportunities employer and we welcome applications from all sections of the community

Belfast
City Council

In addition to filling the immediate vacancies, we also intend to create a reserve list of successful applicants, in strict order of merit based on performance at interview. We anticipate that this list will last for 12 months, or until it is exhausted, whichever is sooner.

Therefore, should a similar post to the immediate vacancies become available within this time we may offer it to those on the reserve list, in order of merit, without further interview.

These posts will be either on a fixed term or temporary basis and may be working full-time, part-time or job share hours.

Please indicate below whether you would be interested in working full-time, part-time or job share hours by ticking the appropriate box.

Hours of work:

Full-time Part-time Job share

You can apply for all positions and, if appointed to the reserve list, you will be considered for fixed term and temporary vacancies and for full-time, part-time and job share hours.

If you apply for all positions, you can accept a post working part-time or job share hours without giving up your right to be offered a post working full-time hours.

It is important to note: If you are placed on the reserve list, you will only be offered vacant posts on the basis of the information you have provided above. For example, if you have ticked that you wish to be considered for full-time hours only and a part-time post becomes available, we will not offer you this part-time post.

Section 3: Driving licence and experience

- 5.
- (a) Do you hold a full, current driving licence which enables you to drive in Northern Ireland and have your own transport available at all times for official council business, or *access to a form of transport which enables you to meet the requirements of the post in full?
Please be advised that this alternative is a 'reasonable adjustment' specifically for applicants with disabilities who, as a result of their disability, are unable to hold a full, current driving licence.
- Yes No

If you have answered yes to the above question, please also provide details of your driving licence number, start and expiry dates:

Licence number: _____ Start date: _____ Expiry date: _____

By providing this information, you are consenting to Belfast City Council verifying your licence details with the Driver and Vehicle Agency (NI).

You must complete the application form in either typescript (Arial font size 11) or legible handwriting using black ink. You must limit your text in this section, i.e. (b), to no more than one A4 page per criterion. You must not use continuation sheets. If you submit more than one page per criterion, the short-listing panel will only consider the first page of information and you may not be short-listed.

Applicants must, as at the closing date for receipt of application forms, be able to demonstrate by providing personal and specific examples on the application form, that they meet the experience as stated in the employee specification.

Shortlisting criteria

- (b) Belfast City Council reserves the right to shortlist only those applicants who as at the closing date for receipt of application forms:
- in the second instance, can demonstrate on the application form, by providing personal and specific examples, one year's relevant experience of working as an Environmental Health Officer or in a similar Environmental Health role; and
 - in the third instance, can demonstrate on the application form, by providing personal and specific examples, two years' relevant experience of working as an Environmental Health Officer or in a similar Environmental Health role.

If applicable, please provide the following detail in box (b):

You must clearly state the start and end dates of your relevant experience including the number of years' experience you have in this area. You must clearly detail where you gained this work experience; the areas of environmental health you have had responsibility for; what programmes you participated in; what project work you carried out; what reports and statistical information you produced; who this information was produced for; etc.
